NS03 – DISCORD

The NS03 Discord is our 300gsm heavyweight pullover hoodie, a tribute to the East Coast DIY spirit and the community-driven ethics of the underground. Built with a baggy, boxy fit and a deep, double-layered hood. With metal eyelets and knotted drawstrings, it uses zero plastic in its construction. For the screen printer, the tightly knit fleece face prevents pilling and ensures a flat, stable surface that handles all printing styles including discharge. It is a garment of collective power—heavy enough to carry the message and soft enough for the long haul.
